Reference Letter

To Whom It May Concern,

I am happy to recommend Joël for any role or project requiring a talented, adaptable, and creative media professional. He has been instrumental in building the ONE brand from the ground up. Starting with a blank page in 2019, Joël developed a fully established brand with a wide range of marketing materials, including images, printed materials, on-screen content, large banners, and an exhibition stand, all aligned with a consistent visual identity.

Joël is a skilled media professional with expertise across all areas of media design. His technical proficiency is matched by his creativity. He thrives in new challenges, is stress-resistant, and brings energy and enthusiasm to his work. Joël is an excellent team player, but also works well independently when required.

I highly recommend Joël, as I am confident he will bring the same level of excellence to any future project.

Sincerely,

Revel Wood
